SH Remembers Jessica Santos

By Greg Valdepsino

On August 27th, 2006, Jessica Santos, a former student at Sleepy Hollow High School who was attending the University of New Haven and majoring in criminal justice, was tragically shot and killed in a drive-by shooting in Yonkers. Although police are still investigating the incident, they have reported that she was struck by a single bullet that was fired by two teenage boys. She died in St. Joseph's Hospital at the age of nineteen. Born July 22nd, 1987 to Gisela Marin and Edgar L. Santos, Jessica graduated with the class of 2005. She was buried in Sleepy Hollow Cemetery.

When asked about Jessica Santos, Ms. Langston, her former media arts teacher, said, "She was an independent person and extremely talented in visual design. In fact, she designed the cover of Digital Yearbook 2005. I encouraged her to pursue her art talent in college but she was very passionate about a career in criminal justice."

A close friend, Celeste Hanley, said, "I never thought in a million years that something like this could happen. She was an amazing person. She was always happy, and tried to make the best of every situation."

Jessica shall be missed, but also remembered.
